This renovated 2-bedroom unit holds a coveted address and sits in a prime location close to excellent schools, public transport, shopping and recreational facilities. The cluster of units share a wide entry driveway that has the feel of a court and as such the property feels more like a smaller house than a unit.

The homely feel continues inside, where you will find easy-care tiled floors in the living, dining and spacious modern kitchen and great natural light. With stainless steel appliances, split-system heating and cooling and well-sized carpeted bedrooms with built-in-robos, this unit offers some great extras. Off-street parking is included with a single car-port as well as a small storage unit to complete this fantastic package. This property is truly a great start for a first home-buyer or investor (existing tenants are of excellent quality and happy to stay on). A sure winner, best to get in quick!
